

Minutes: SedonaKind general meeting May 21, 2021

Location: Sedona Public Library 10 AM

Attendees:

Gail Moore, Katie Hamilton, Cheri Baldwin, Joy Sinnott, Jawn McKinley, Christine Schneider, Laurie Dawe, Marge Schwartz, Julie Lilly, Marguerite Finn-Tymczyn, Carol Wallen, Cheryl Kellogg, Marcia Conley, Heather Molans, Sandy Brandvold, Gloria Woody, Marlyn Savage, Linda Brecher, Lou Ann Bruck, Cheryl Christenson, Helen Knoll, Geri Crelot

The meeting started promptly with musical introduction during socializing. Katie asked for kindness stories and there were stories from various members, many of which brought us to tears, including some from new enthusiastic members. This was followed by an introduction of the board, a video recap of the past year activities, and a preview of events for the rest of the year.

Kindness in Schools was explained by Cheryl Christenson, who was substituting for Pam Hollenbach.

When Jawn asked for volunteers for the kindness columns she had no problem getting them, without undue coercion.

Marge Schwartz explained the various knitting and crocheting projects, including hats for people going through chemotherapy. This was also explained by Geri Crelot. The knitting projects are incredibly impressive.

Charms were left out and many taken by members who plan to travel and distribute them.

There were a number of boxes of loves, chimes and greeting cards sold.

The rock painting project was greeted enthusiastically, especially among those of us who are not very creative.

There were drawings for boxes of love, and a sunchime.

A good time was had by all.

Respectfully submitted,

Laurie Dawe
